

AGRIBUSINESS FARM & RANCH BASIC

FACT SHEET

Allianz draws upon more than 135 years of experience protecting American farms and ranches to offer a wide range of coverages to meet the specialized needs of agribusiness.

Your client expects a farm or ranch policy to cover the basics: the home, agricultural buildings and farm personal property. But they also require protection in the event of bodily injury and property damage that may arise from farming or personal activities.

With Allianz coverage options, your client can customize their policy to fit the way they live and do business.
